
Contents

Acknowledgement.....	vii
Prologue.....	ix
Preface.....	xiii
CHAPTER ONE
Seeking an Ideal Constitution for Tanzania.....	1
CHAPTER TWO
Asymmetric States Worldwide.....	35
CHAPTER THREE
Managing Political Representation through Political Parties between National and Constituent Governments in Tanzania.....	63
CHAPTER FOUR
Citizenship and Related Rights: Implications of the Proposed new Constitutional Dispensation in Tanzania.....	94
CHAPTER FIVE
Economic and Fiscal Relations between Tanzania Mainland and Zanzibar:.....	135

CHAPTER SIX

The South African Constitution:
Legitimising of a Nation.....173

CHAPTER SEVEN

The Economic and Fiscal Implications of
Two Government and Three Government
Union..... 200

CHAPTER EIGHT

Zanzibar's Economic Options and the new Constitution.....238

CHAPTER NINE

The Social and Cultural Distinctiveness of Zanzibar: A Historical Perspective..... 273

CHAPTER TEN

'Government Structure' In the new Constitutional Order: Background,
Options, & Implications.....309

CHAPTER ELEVEN

Avoiding the Cost Burden of Constitution-
Making in Tanzania: Lessons from Kenya's
Experience.....354

CHAPTER TWELVE

Conclusion..... 376