

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
1. Plural Societies and Democratic Regimes	1
A Challenge to Democratic Pessimists	2
Definitions	3
Plural Societies and Democracy in the First World	6
Separation of Powers and Overlapping Memberships	8
Plural Societies and Party Systems	12
Deviant Cases	14
Plural Societies and Democracy in the Third World	16
Overdrawn Contrasts between the First and Third Worlds	21
2. Consociational Democracy	25
Grand Coalition	25
Varieties of Grand Coalitions	31
Mutual Veto	36
Proportionality	38
Segmental Autonomy and Federalism	41
Secession and Partition	44
Disadvantages of Consociational Democracy	47
3. Favorable Conditions for Consociational Democracy	53
The Balance of Power	55
Multiparty Systems	61
Size and Consociational Democracy	65
The Structure of Cleavages	71
Crosscutting Cleavages	75
Overarching Loyalties	81
Representative Party Systems	83
Segmental Isolation and Federalism	87
Traditions of Elite Accommodation	99
4. Consociational Elements in Nonconsociational Democracies	104
A Typology of Democratic Regimes	105

Centripetal Democracies	109
Centrifugal Democracies	114
Semiconsociational Democracy: Canada	119
Semiconsociational Democracy: Israel	129
The Limits of Consociationalism: Northern Ireland	134
5. Consociational Democracy in the Third World	142
The Lewis Model	143
Consociational Democracy in Lebanon, 1943-1975	147
Consociational Democracy in Malaysia, 1955-1969	150
Lebanon and Malaysia: Favorable and Unfavorable Conditions	153
Consociational Failure in Cyprus, 1960-1963	158
Democratic Failure in Nigeria, 1957-1966	161
Third World Conditions: A General Appraisal	164
Ambivalent Factors	170
Unfavorable Factors	174
6. The Consociational Example as Colonial Heritage	177
The Colonizers' Democratic Models	177
The Belgian and Dutch Models in Six New States	181
Consociationalism and Formal Constitutional Rules	186
Adaptation of the Autonomy Principle	192
Informal Consociational Practices: Indonesia	198
Intersegmental Coalitions in Surinam and the Netherlands Antilles	201
Coalitions in the Former Belgian Territories	206
Counterconsociational Elements in the Belgian and Dutch Examples	209
The Swiss Model in Uruguay	212
The Value of the Consociational Heritage	216
7. Consociational Engineering	223
Alternative or Prior Goals	225
Economic Underdevelopment and Consociational Engineering	230
Intense Cleavages and Consociational Engineering	231
Index	239