

Contents

Preface	v
1 Who is the Midwife? State, Market or Society?	1
Shifting emphasis from state to market and society	1
Methodological issues	8
2 Group Initiation and Goals	15
Initiators, members and beneficiaries	15
Goals and activities	22
Sources of funds and extent of self-reliance	27
3 Organisation and Leadership Issues	31
Organisation characteristics	31
Leadership characteristics	35
4 Group Relations with the Community and the Government	41
Relations with the community	41
Relations with the government	45
5 Civic Groups and Democracy	55
Leadership recruitment and tenure	55
Participation in decision making	57
The effects of liberalism and pluralism	62
The gender question in group politics	67
6 Assessment of Achievements	72
Attainment of goals and other outcomes	72
Factors explaining success and failure	75
Ability to adjust to challenges and opportunities	78
7 Conclusion	83
Bibliography	86
Index	89