

Contents

PREFACE	7
1. MODERNITY AND RELIGIOUS INTERPRETATIONS ...	11
I. Modernity	13
II. Modernity and Religious Interpretations	25
III. Political Islam	57
2. CENTRAL AND PERIPHERAL TRIBUTARY CULTURES ...	93
I. Introduction	95
II. The Formation of Tributary Ideology in the Mediterranean Region	105
III. Tributary Culture in Other Regions of the Pre-Capitalist World	141
3. THE CULTURE OF CAPITALISM	149
I. Introduction	151
II. The Decline of Metaphysics and the Reinterpretation of Religion	157
III. The Construction of Eurocentric Culture	165
IV. Marxism and the Challenge of Actually Existing Capitalism	189

V.	The Culturalist Evasion: Provincialism and Fundamentalism	195
VI.	For a Truly Universal Culture	205
4.	TOWARDS A NON-EUROCENTRIC VIEW OF HISTORY AND A NON-EUROCENTRIC SOCIAL THEORY	217
I.	The Tributary Mode of Production: The Universal Form of Advanced Pre-Capitalist Societies	221
II.	European Feudalism: Peripheral Tributary Mode	233
III.	Mercantilism and the Transition to Capitalism: Unequal Development, Key to the Miracle of European Particularity	239
IV.	Eurocentrism and the Debate over Slavery	249
V.	Eurocentrism in the Theory of the Nation	255
VI.	Actually Existing Capitalism and the Globalization of Value	259
	NOTES	280
	INDEX	283