

Table of Contents

Biographical Note	v
Preface	viii
Acknowledgement	x
1. The Pan-African Movement: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow	1
2. There is Neither a Blueprint Nor a Model for Socialism	11
3. The Political Party and the Post-Independence Challenges.....	15
4. Colonialism and Racialism: A Challenge to the Basic Principles of Human Intercourse	23
5. CUBA: The Standard Bearer of the Third World Revolutionary Movement for Liberation	32
6. Happy New Year to All The Liberation Movements In Africa.....	42
7. African Liberation Not Possible Without African Unity.....	49
8. Cooperation and Extended Economic Relationship is the Basis of Liberation	55
9. Aluta Continua!	60
10. Some Aspects of Liberation	69
11. Indivisibility of the Right to Freedom in Africa	79
12. Tanzania's Position on the Liberation Struggle in Southern Africa.....	83
13. Nationalism in Southern Africa.....	87
14. Tazara – From a Caricature of a “Chinese” Railway to “Our” Railway	95
15. The Process of Liberation.....	103
16. Rhodesia: No Independence before Majority Rule	112
17. Ireland and the Struggles for Freedom and Independence.....	117
18. Unity is Strength: United we Stand Divided we Fall	121
19. SADDC – The Beacon of Liberation from Economic Dependence from South Africa.....	127
20. Nigeria is Among the Front Line States.....	131
21. The Inherited Cross of Independent Africa	136
22. South Africa and the Commonwealth	146
23. Freedom and Justice are the Basis for Sustainable Peace	151
24. The Indivisibility of the Humanity of All Mankind	155

25.	The Total Liberation of Africa, The OAU Outstanding Agenda	163
26.	The Remaining Uncompleted Task of the OAU Liberation Committee.....	170
27.	SADDC and The Liberation of Southern Africa.....	179
28.	The Principle of Justice Must Be The Basis of Law.....	190
29.	Reflection on Some Aspects of the Voyage to Political Discovery	192
30.	Africa is One.....	197
31.	The Ultimate Goal is the Total Liberation of Africa	201
32.	The Two Remaining Inescapable Tasks For African Liberation	205
33.	SADDC: The Bulwark Against Apartheid South Africa	214
34.	Learning from Sir Seretse Khama	218
35.	Attaining Political Power is Only the Beginning.....	221
36.	The Party Must Serve The People.....	229
37.	'LOTA' and the Struggle against Apartheid.....	240
38.	Greater Justice In South-North Relations.....	247
39.	Why the Struggle against Apartheid Must Be Intensified	251
40.	The OAU is Africa's Only Major Power.....	258
41.	The World Half-Slave and Half-Free Not a Peaceful Place for All To Live In.....	262
42.	African States Must Cooperate.....	269
43.	Action Has to Follow	274
44.	Freedom for the People and for the Nation are Inseparable.....	281
45.	With United Action, We shall Overcome and Win	286
46.	UNESCO's Responsibilities for Human Dignity and Freedom.....	290
47.	Apartheid Must Go	295
48.	UNICEF's Work Must Continue.....	302
49.	A Just Africa: Ethics and The Economy.....	306
50.	African Unity: The Unfinished Agenda of the OAU.....	315
51.	Understanding Contemporary Africa: The Role of India in the Framework of South-South Cooperation.....	320
52.	The Challenges of Post-Apartheid South Africa – Responsibilities for Africa	327
53.	Leadership and the Management of Change	332
	Index	339